Centenary College

Shreveport, Louisiana

Published by the Yoncopin Staff
Susan Bell, Editor
Jayce Tohline, Associate
Volume 47

When you pass through these pages you will see a reflection . . .

A reflection of someone searching for himself.

In the midst of our involvement, we often stopped to seek a quiet place . . .

Where we could ponder on the past, and look to the future.

We became aware of the explosion of excitement.

The thrill of accomplishment.

The fullness of youth.

the celebration of life.

We dreamed the dreams that are tomorrow in the final metamorphosis into adulthood.

Centenary Lady and Gent

Our Lady and Gent — people with songs in their hearts — with smiles on their faces. What is it that makes a person what he is? To borrow from Shakespeare, "'tis not hand, nor foot, nor arm, nor face . . . nor any other part belonging to a man." Rather, it is that indefinable thing — that which marks every human being, which determines temperament, character, and any of a multitude of other things. Some call it, as I, "the soul." it is a beauty of the soul that marks these two, a frame of mind, a being that says those three words, not, "I love you," but, "Let me help," an open heart, a clear mind, a helpful word. How do you explain two people like this, other than to say that they are . . . and we're glad of it.

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities

During the fall, a list of juniors and seniors nominated for Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities was presented to the faculty for consideration. The faculty, in choosing the following seventeen people, considered campus leadership, scholarship, participation in campus affairs, and qualities denoting future potential. After the selections were made, the names were approved by a national committee for the honorary directory of the nation's student leaders.

Centenary Campus 1972

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence.

As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons.

Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant;

they too have their story.

A black and white photograph of a young woman with dark, wavy hair. She is wearing a light-colored, short-sleeved button-down shirt, dark sunglasses, and a hat with a leopard print band. She is holding a shotgun with both hands, angled across her body. The background is slightly out of focus, showing what appears to be an indoor setting with a doorway and some wall decorations.

A black and white photograph of four young men sitting around a table, focused on playing a card game. The man on the left is dealing cards. The man in the center has a mustache and is looking down at his hand. The man on the right is also looking at his cards. The background features a patterned curtain and a bookshelf.

Now the students are in the dormitories
The boys are playing cards in their dorm
They are playing "Spades."
The girls are playing cards in their dorm.
They play bridge,
See the boy spaced out.
See the girls from outer space.
Dormitory life is fun!
Fun! fun! fun!!!
Smell the dirty socks
And the stale cigarette smoke
And . . .
Dormitory visitation is fun too.
Boys go to the girls' dorm.
Girls go to the boys' dorm
HMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMM . . .

Registration — Study

LOOK! See the students!
They are registering for college.
Register, students, register!
They are studying.
Study, students, study!
What art the students studying?
Why, they are studying their schedules to see how they can get into the classes they want.

When the finals come around
They will study again
And burn the midnight oil.

Playhouse

Marjorie Lyons Playhouse is recognized and respected near and far for its terrific productions, among which; in the past, have been Marat/Sade, Romeo and Juliet, Fiddler on the Roof, and Lion in Winter, to name a few.

Our playhouse artists have given much for us to enjoy and much to think about in the past, and we can be sure they will continue to do so in the future. For their part, we can only hope they will continue to celebrate "The smell of the greasepaint and the roar of the crowd."

Big Riggers versus Sha-Na-Na — This is football?

If I had a day that I could give you
I'd give you a day just like today
If I had song that I could sing for you
I'd sing a song to make you feel this way

If I had a tale that I could tell you I'd tell a tale sure to make you smile
If I had a wish that I could wish for you I'd make a wish for sunshine all the while

John Denver

Recreation

I hope to say it now
It's been a good life
all in all It's really fine to have a chance to hang around Lie there by the fire and watch the evening fire While all my friends . . .
sit around.

Right bottom: Stale mates.

Forums

The Forums committee of the SGA tries to bring to campus speakers who will be both interesting and intellectually stimulating.

"And the Lord said to me, They have said well all that they have spoken."

"Speak the speech — we await your words."

Dances

Old South Formal.

Christmas Party.

Sweetheart Party.

I danced in the evening when the world was begun. And I danced on the moon and the stars and the sun. I danced from the heavens down to the earth. In all mankind I have my birth.

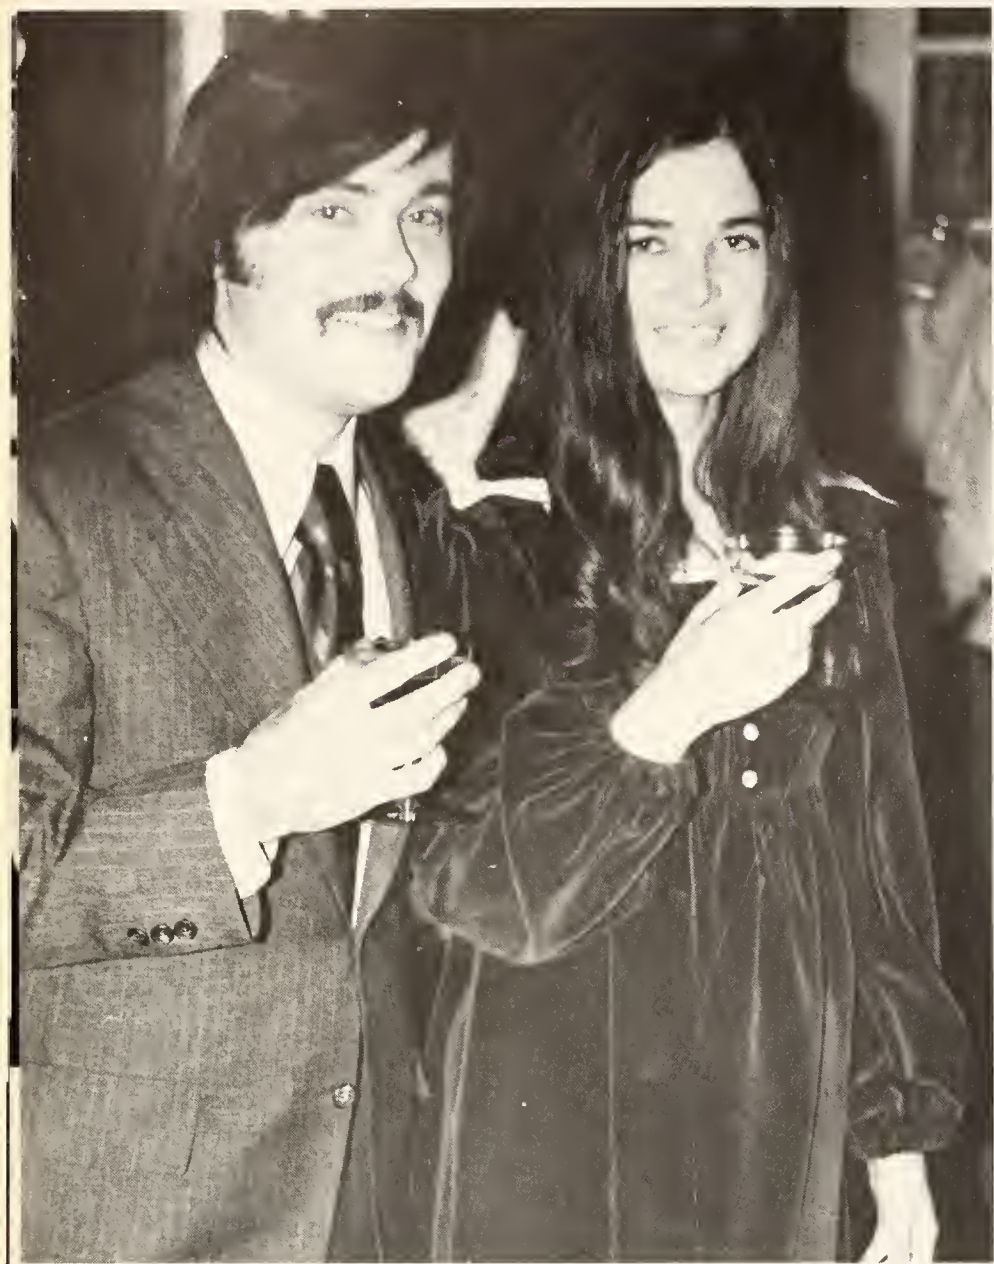

A moment of silence.

All Campus Wing Ding.

Partying

Bangs and Bubbles.

Precedent shattered — Ride on, SGA!

What? — Me worry?

Sorry, Santa!

Drink and make merry!

"More beans?"

WHOOPEE!

Different strokes for different folks

Celebration has many forms and faces. The height of a party may be the brew, the girls, or the guys. It may be the music or the disadvantaged kids whom Santa has just visited. It may even lie in a moment's quiet repose.

"If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away."

Homecoming

Who's who in this American college?

Homecoming — All campus weekend, for a short time we could all cut up and act like kids again . . . act like grown folks . . . and have a ball. For a few moments we could be anyone or anything, with no one to say to us "NO."

Happiness and horrors of Halloween

Spirit.

Hangouts

The place may be McDonald's or the Pizza King, Crumley Gardens or the Peanut Gallery, or any of a myriad of places. The people will be, at that time and at that place, only what they are then and there, for . . .

"All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players: they have their exits and their entrances; and one man in his time plays many parts."

Campus Review

The All-Star Campus Revue, each year establishes that the best entertainment is free. When students get together to "do their own thing," anything can happen . . . and usually does. The best part of it all is that these are people we all know . . . and enjoy a little more and understand a little more . . . because we feel a little closer to them than we ever could to a one-night stand. The music is good, the comedy happy and light-hearted, and the atmosphere informal. In the immortal words of Joe College, "Ain't it great?"

As we live our lives in our college years, and in those yet to come

Each of us in his turn, touches many things

I am the eagle, I live in high country
In rocky cathedrals that reach to the sky
I am the hawk and there's blood on my feathers
But time is still turning they soon will be dry
And all those who see me and all who believe in me Share in the freedom I feel when I fly

Come dance with the west wind and touch on the mountain tops Sail o'er the canyons and up to the stars
And reach for the heavens and hope for the future And all that we can be and not what we are.

And in our turn, we also are touched.

Dr. John H. Allen
President of Centenary College of Louisiana

The coming of a new President to Centenary in 1970-71 marked what all hope will prove to be the beginning of a new life for Centenary. His kindness, ability, and understanding have strengthened our faith in the worth of our college. Small wonder, then, that his return home from Europe should be an occasion for a welcome party, and for celebration. "Administration repression" is scarcely evident here, as students and faculty come together to greet this man. One might even wonder whether it is not possible that genuine affection is displayed here — eh?

When I was a child, my speech, feelings, and thinking were all those of a child;
now that I am a man, I have no more use for childish ways. What we see now is like the dim image in a mirror; then we shall see face to face.

I Corinthians
13, 11-12 TEV

The editors thank Mr. Maurie Wayne for his time and patience, his encouragement and dedication.

A fitting end.
